Request for Information under the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987 (the Act) (the LGOIMA)

Thank you for your email of 1 July 2024 requesting the following information:

Are the CAP recommendations, based on its adaptation areas, accepted by the Council and intended to be used in future district planning?

I can clarify that at the Council Meeting of 20 June 2024, the Council resolved that:

“Given the significance of the matters addressed in the Report, that further analysis will be carried out before Council makes any decision regarding next steps including recommendations”.

I can confirm that this includes any information that may be potentially relevant for use in future district planning.

The minutes of the 20 June 2024 have not yet been confirmed, as this will take place at the next Council meeting on 25 July 2024. However, once confirmed, the minutes will be made available on the Council Website, and the recommendation I have noted will be listed as Resolution E.

Ngā mihi,

Kris Pervan
