

HRZ - High Density Residential Zone

[Added 01 Sep 23 PC2]

The High Density Residential Zone provides opportunities for the development of high density, multi-storey housing within a walkable catchment of identified train stations and commercial centres. Building heights in the High Density Residential Zone are generally enabled to 6-storeys, except near the Metropolitan Centre Zone, where greater building heights are enabled in response to the scale and primacy of this zone.

Development at higher densities will provide an efficient use of land and infrastructure, increase the capacity of housing and ensure that residents have convenient access to amenities, employment, education facilities, retail and entertainment opportunities, public open space and public transport. This will promote walking and cycling neighbourhoods that are connected to and contribute to the vitality of centres.

The development of papakāinga is also provided for within the Zone.

It is anticipated that the form, appearance and amenity of neighbourhoods within the Zone will change over time as existing housing stock is redeveloped with more intensive typologies and densities. Development within the zone is expected to achieve quality urban design outcomes and manage transitions in building bulk and scale.

The following precinct is located within the High Density Residential Zone:

Whakarongotai Takiwā Precinct

The purpose of the Whakarongotai Takiwā Precinct is to recognise that the cultural and traditional practices that occur at Whakarongotai marae and Ruakōhatu urupā are likely to be sensitive to the effects of surrounding development. The precinct seeks to manage these effects by providing for a lower level of development to occur adjacent to the marae and urupā as a permitted activity. Where development breaches permitted activity standards, it must avoid, remedy or mitigate adverse effects on the cultural values and tikanga Māori associated with the marae and urupā, and the use and function of these places.
